Peace

We are at peace again.
August 14, 1945, we celebrated the end of war.
Now we laugh and love and sing again—we live!
Peace is a joyous thing!

In the war-torn areas, little children no longer cry.
They die silently.
Starvation is a tragic thing.

Nations drop the forged links of friendship relentlessly.
There is greedy shouting behind the conference doors.
Cooperation is a difficult thing.

Labor and management snarl and wrangle.
Veterans find no jobs, no homes.
Economics is a puzzling thing.

Families unite.
A father sees his little boy for the first time.
There is warmth and brightness and faith.

In time, the dark frozen ground must yield the sprouting grain.
Peace comes quietly, like the growing grass.

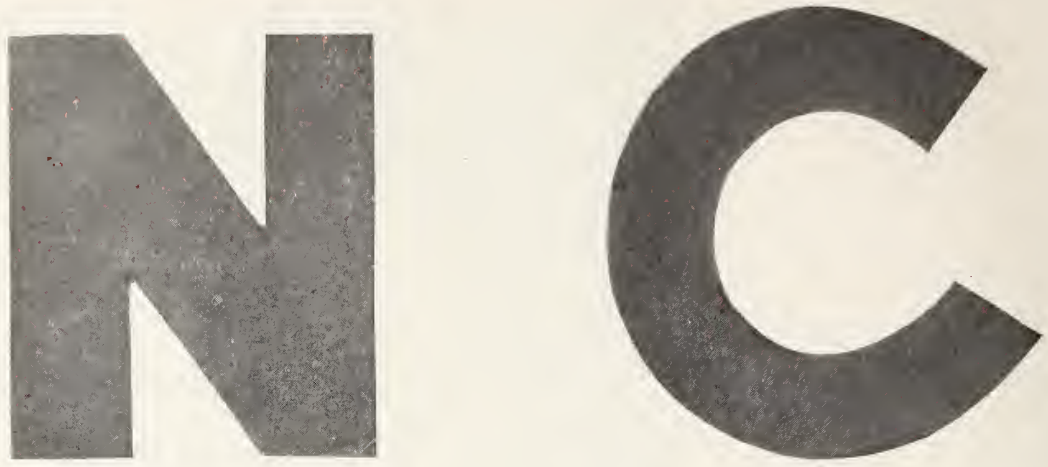
DR. JOHNSON

With respect and sincerity we dedicate the following pages to our friend, adviser and instructor, Dr. K. Richard Johnson. A man of knowledge and measureless energy, he gives generously of his help. His earnestness, geniality, and humor have brought depth and pleasure to our years at National.



When we came to school this year, the world was no longer at war. In many ways, however, life at National seemed much the same. It was still hard to get a cover for the annual; it was still hard to get notebook paper and books for class. We were the same people—the freshmen are just the seniors four years ago—taking the same courses which had been given last year. But there was a difference in the air. We're happier people. It's been a year to remember.

So we present the NATIONAL, a reflection of the year 1946—mirrored in the way we looked, the words we said, the things we did.

VIEWS AND ACTIVITIES

On The Campus

Our pride and joy, the ice rink, through the courtesy (and hard work) of Messrs. Hardy and Freese, the children of the Demonstration School and its Parent-Teacher Council.

We can cook! And we can weave and make pottery.
Won't we make wonderful wives?

The Dorm

Where 180 girls ate sweet potatoes, hung their blue jeans, and found shelter from the rain, together

Gwen Goodman, President

Miss Gaardsmoe, Mrs. Kirkland, Mrs. Wash

D.G.A. Those three little letters mean more than just Dorm Girls Association. They mean nights of hair-washing and radio murder mysteries, and of work, too. They mean boots in the hall, cocoa during exam week, shows in the date room, potato chips and cokes. But most of all, they mean good times, good fun and GOOD FRIENDS.

Tea for Two.

T.G.A. was really active this year. The annual Pot-Luck Dinner started us out. Then came the big success—the Christmas Dinner—Santa Claus stole the show! The Progressive Dinner was fun, with dorm girls along. The Town Girls Mothers have worked with and for us all year. We all enjoyed the traditional Mother-Daughter Luncheon. Commuting can be fun when you do it with such wonderful Town Girls.

FESTI

A Time to Reap, the radio play by Stephen Vincen Binet, was given on our Thanksgiving program, to the accompaniment of Choir.

Girls dressed as people of the soil, from all times, from all over the country, read the lines of the drama of the American farmer. His courage and perseverance and love of his land have made our America what it is today. His willingness to work and his appreciation of all mankind's struggle to live give a hope for tomorrow to the whole world.

VALS

Our Christmas season was climaxed by a beautiful, colorful play of deep significance.

The old king thunders at his medieval court as they gather in gay, thoughtless spirit for the holiday festivities. A bag of gold to him who will find a token of the suffering of the living God! 'Tis not the burning candle. 'Tis not the Yule log. But—

"Oh, the holly it shows in the way that it grows,
"That Jesus arose from the dead."—The foolish little jester is right.
Heigh Ho for Holly!

DAN

Soft music, fragrance of flowers, the new formal, candlelight, and the man—from Great Lakes or your private life—are the delicious elements of a dance at National.

CES

The first big dance was at the Michigan Shore Country Club; after the Christmas dance and the Calico Capers at school, and the spring informal at the Edgewater the dreamy Junior Prom was held at the Michigan Shore Country Club.

Miss "Mac"

To Miss MacLennan we must say "farewell", but when we leave, we take with us the memory of her gracious friendliness, her ever-ready help, and her winning smile. Quiet and sincere, charming and sweet to everyone, Miss "Mac" has made for herself, a place in the hearts of all of us seniors. Friend to all, we'll remember with fond affection our Miss "Mac".

National's student branch of the International Association of Childhood Education is always one of the most vital organizations of the college.

The third Thursday of each month brings a different and worth while program—an author, the Christmas workshop, the interview, the Supervision department tea for room directors. The big event this year was the first peacetime national convention. June Smyth, Louise Hanchett, and Helen Vollmer were chosen to represent us at Cincinnati.

A SENIOR'S FAREWELL

What shall I say — 'tis time to part—
Farewell– Goodbye? Ah, no—
For within my heart will always be
The memories we gathered here.

Farewell? But no—I'll merely say
I'm glad for you, my school, my friends,
For you have made of me
What I am, and I am grateful.

With knowledge gained, and hopes
Held high, I go—and you
Shall come with me,
To guide, direct, console me.

Forget you? Can one forget the smile,
The word, the hand clasp of a friend?
Forget you? Rather hold you dearer—
For you see, 'tis time to part.
